ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

NEWS OF THE CITY ACROSS THE POTOMAC RIVER.

Special Correspondence of The Star.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., November 27, 1906.
The charges preferred by Messrs. Charles J. Geisendaffer, G. E. Pickett and E. A. McDonald against Policeman John T. Roberts were heard by Mayor Felt in the police court last evening. The mayor, in summing up the case, said that the policeman had performed his duty under the circumstances and could not have done otherwise. The charge preferred was that of harsh treatment and conduct unbecoming an officer. The accused was represented by Attorney Robinson. The complainants alleged that they were temporarily held at police headquarters at the instance of Chief of Police C. T. Goods, and during their detention Policeman Roberts would not allow them to use the telephone at police headquarters in order that they might make arrangements for securing collateral for their release. The men had been taken in custody because a report fell from the pocket of Mr. Geisendaffer and was discharged in the street. In the police court that morning Justice Caton, after hearing the case, dismissed the charge against Mr. Geisendaffer.

It is said to be more than probable that a second lieutenant will be elected to a meeting of the board of police commissioners to be held this evening.

At a meeting of the Alexandria Lodge of Elks last evening the new constitution was unanimously adopted. A number of candidates were elected and business of a routine nature transacted.

Old Polish Church Restored.
Old Polish Church, near Mount Vernon, which was recently restored to its former colonial condition through the efforts of the Daughters of the American Revolution, will be reopened for services Sunday, January 2. Rev. Dr. A. Wallis of the Episcopal Theological Seminary will preach a sermon on that occasion.

A deed has been placed on record in the corporation court conveying from Mrs. Isabel G. Johnston to Mrs. Thomas W. Robinson a house and lot at the southwest corner of Washington and Orinoco streets.

The consideration named in the deed is the sale was effected through Mr. J. D. Nor-moyle, real estate dealer. Mrs. Robinson recently had the dwelling remodeled and now occupies it.

The second degree will be conferred on a large class of candidates at a meeting of Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus, at St. Mary's Hall tomorrow evening.

The wedding of Miss Lucy Chandlee Leadbeater, daughter of Mrs. Edward Stabler Leadbeater, and Mr. Laurence Stabler, both of this city, will occur tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Protestant Episcopal Church. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. W. J. Morton, rector.

Brief Mention.
In the police court today Nora Green, colored, was fined $5 on a charge of disorderly conduct and destroying property. A similar fine was assessed against Malcolm Elliott, charged with abusive language toward Thomas Elliott.

The funeral of Mrs. Connie Rector, whose death occurred last Sunday morning, occurred at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon from her late home on Seminary Hill, west of this city. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. The interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery.

The will of Margaret Alexander was admitted to probate in the corporation court yesterday. The estate is valued at $3,300 and her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Nelson, qualified as executrix. By the provisions of the will John Alexander, her son, is left house and lot, 909 North Columbus street; Maggie Nelson, her daughter, house and lot 221 North Washington street; Maggie Knoxville and Mary Cook, grandchildren, are left $500 each. The residue of her estate is to go to her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Nelson.

Windsor McClary, infant son of C. and Maude R. McClary died last night at his parents' residence, 917 King street. The remains will be interred at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Bethel cemetery.

A meeting of the city council is to be held this evening at which a member will be elected from the third ward to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Councilman Gardner L. Boothie.

FOR ORPHAN BOYS.

Catholic Knights of America to Hold Ball.

At the meetings of the local councils of the Catholic Knights of America last Sunday the members reported having met with much success in the sale of tickets for the entertainment and ball to be given in Convention Hall Thanksgiving evening for the benefit of St. Joseph's Male Orphan Asylum. The members of the donation committee stated that their appeals to the local business men during the past week had met with generous responses. This committee will continue its canvass during this week.

The knights were urged to redouble their efforts in behalf of the orphan boys, and it was suggested that they request their friends and acquaintances, when making purchases for the Thanksgiving dinner, to send a donation to the asylum, on H street northwest.

The following knights and associates have been named to serve on the reception committee the evening of the entertainment and ball: E. J. Hannan, chairman; G. E. Repetti, vice chairman; C. Krogman, F. P. Madigan, J. F. Shea, F. P. Sheehy, L. Cavanaugh, M. Luckett, E. A. Berberich, Dr. C. J. Mess, Dr. J. J. Slattery, J. W. Bartley, T. J. Higgins, C. L. Wagner, John Lynch, R. J. Keating, B. J. T. Devine, A. B. Coppes, W. Schwing, C. Rauscher, W. F. Downey, L. Mangin, F. T. Moran, F. P. May, J. T. Callaghan, W. F. Hart, H. J. Hattigan, A. C. J. D. Hannan, Dr. C. E. O'Connor, M. Kinslow, J. D. Sullivan, J. Rudden, Arthur Small and W. J. Friswell.

NEW YORK, November 27.—United States Agent Dexter M. Rogers of the national bureau of entomology announced today the discovery of a large number of gypsy moths in the state of Maine, and declared that the finding of "this dangerous enemy of forest trees in Maine is full of grave significance, and that the large timber interests of that state."

DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH.

Cure Catarrh by Breathing Hyomei.
Sold Under Guarantee.

The only scientific and common-sense way to treat catarrh of the nose and throat is by a local application that will kill the catarrhal germ. Ordinary stomach dosing is worse than useless. Taking medicine into the stomach to cure catarrh of the head can have no good effect, and often leads to serious derangement of the digestive organs.

By breathing Hyomei three or four times daily through the next pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, its medicated, healing air penetrates to the most remote parts of the nose, throat and lungs, searches out and kills all catarrhal germs and soothes and heals any irritation in the mucous membrane.

Henry Evans' faith in the wonderful merit of Hyomei as a cure for catarrh is shown by the guarantee he gives with every Hyomei outfit that the money will be refunded unless the treatment gives satisfaction.

A complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a pocket inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei and a medicine dropper, costs but $1. Extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, 50 cents. Henry Evans gives his personal guarantee to refund the money if Hyomei does not relieve, so that you run no risk at all in buying this reliable remedy.

ON THEIR WAY SOUTH

MANY FEDERAL PRISONERS PASS THROUGH CITY TODAY.

Five cars filled with federal prisoners and guards, on their way to Atlanta, Ga., where the prisoners are to finish their sentences, left here this afternoon. There were 129 prisoners in the party, having been brought from Boston, Sing Sing, N. Y.; Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Auburn, N. Y. Included in the party were bank robbers and persons who have been convicted of making counterfeit money and other offenses in violation of the federal laws. Fifteen of the prisoners were from Pittsburgh, ten from Auburn and eight from Philadelphia. They reached here about 10 o'clock this morning. Others did not arrive until 1 p.m.

Horatio H. Miller, who was sentenced to five years for robbing the First National Bank at Clayville, Pa., and who fought against being transferred from the Pittsburgh to the Atlanta prison, as stated in a dispatch printed in The Sunday Star, was among those who came from Pittsburgh.

Another of the Pittsburgh prisoners was Stephen Bernolak, who was in charge of the foreign department of the First National Bank of Bradock, Pa. It was his duty to accept deposits from foreigners at the bank. He accepted the money, but made no records of the deposits. He is also under a sentence of five years.

In the Boston party was Thomas M. Bram, a West Indian. He is to serve a life sentence for a triple murder committed on the high seas while on the bark Herbert Fuller. He murdered Capt. Nash, the captain's wife and the mate. Upon conviction he was sentenced to be hanged, but he was granted a new trial and was given a life sentence. Another Boston prisoner was Dr. Richard M. Thompson. He is to serve eight years for engaging in the business of making counterfeit money.

This afternoon, when the ninety-six prisoners from Sing Sing, Philadelphia and Baltimore reached the station, the 129 prisoners and the guards who were in charge of them were seated in the cars attached to the regular train and were started toward Atlanta. It is expected that they will reach there about 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Deputy United States Marshal Peter C. Helms, in charge of eight prisoners from Philadelphia, enroute to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., was among the officials who arrived this morning. He took his prisoners to the city hall, where they were accommodated in the cell room until the departure of the 2 o'clock train for Atlanta. Mr. Helms was accompanied by Peter E. Helms, John McMurray and John White as guards.
